

Chapter 7 – Section 1 - Part B
A Confederation of States
Pages 190-192

Troubles for the New Nation

1. Explain the conflicts between New Hampshire and New York.
2. What did most states refuse to accept?
3. What did the Articles of Confederation not provide a way for?
4. The United States owed millions of dollars. Because Congress did not have the power to tax what was the effect of not being able to tax?
5. Who could they ask money from and what response might they receive when asking for the money?
6. Printing money was one way to solve the problem of raising funds. What issue did they have with printed money?
7. Describe the confusion between state money.
8. Describe the problems United States had with:
  - a. Britain
  - b. Spain

Organizing the Northwest Territory

9. Describe the Northwest Territory's location.
10. What did the Land Ordinance of 1785 set up?
11. What did the law call for?
12. How much did Congress plan to sell each section for?
13. One section in every township was set aside for what purpose?
14. What did the Northwest Ordinance set up?
15. What did the Northwest Ordinance guarantee?
16. Under the Northwest Ordinance how were new states admitted?

A Farmer's Revolt

17. Describe an economic depression:
18. Who did the economic depression hit hard?
19. During the Revolution there was a high demand for farm products. Describe what farmers had to do in order to meet the high demand for farm products.
20. When soldiers return home from the war what happened to the demand for farm products and how did this effect the farmers?
21. In Massachusetts, what did the courts do the farms of those who could not by their taxes or loans?
22. Why did Daniel Shay and other farmers attack courthouses and prevent the state from seizing farms?