The New Government Finds Its Way

Directions: Answer the questions as you read about the efforts to launch the new government on pages 134-137. Answer in complete sentences unless it states to list.

Level One: Right There Questions: The answers to these questions are stated directly in the text.

1. Why was the way in which the President would be addressed significant?

2. What is the presidential cabinet and who were Washington's two most influential members?

3. List two things that were established by the Judiciary Act of 1789.

4. What is a bond and how is it related to debt?

5. What was Hamilton's debt plan and who was against it?

6. What compromise was reached over Hamilton's debt plan?

7. What two steps did Hamilton take to build the nation's economy?

8. What was the Whiskey Rebellion and what was its cause?

Level Two: Putting it together: The answers to these questions are not stated directly in the text. The text gives you some clues, but you'll need your own ideas too.

9. What were Madison's objections to Hamilton's plan? Who do you think was correct: Hamilton or Madison? Why?
